K. April 11th. 1917 Det D/B.

He was in B. Coy and was a mate of Markham's, HQ Stretch
-er-bearer, who was killed. When I was coming out wounded
I saw him being carried down the Sunken Road very badly wounded and he was calling out all the time. I heard afterwards in the Battalion that he had died. WSI

HOBLET, C.E. 5737

K. April 11th.1917. Det. D/H.

He was in D.Co., XV.Pltn. I knew Hoblet slightly. He was about 5ft 6" in height, medium build, fair, and about 20 years of age. We were attacking at Bullecourt on the 11th April. We took our objective, and held it for 4 hours, when we were driven out. While we were in the German line, I saw Hoblet lying dead in the trench. He was left there when we retired.
